

1933: Guild founders on set. Gloria Stuart and Noel Madison study the script of Universal's I Like it That Way. Gloria joined the Guild as member #873 just before this production began filming, while Noel was one of the Guild's first founders, as member #5. Nearly 65 years later, in 1998, Gloria won a Screen Actors Guild Award for "Best Performance by a Female Actor in a Supporting Role" for Titanic.
