

DIGEST FOR SCREEN ACTORS GUILD
SPECIAL INTERNET / ONLINE AGREEMENT

The Special Internet / Online Agreement is a SAG agreement that may be applicable when shooting projects made for initial exhibition on the Internet.

How to Qualify for the Special Internet / Online Agreement

REQUIREMENTS

- * Made for exhibition on the Internet
- * Intended as entertainment
- * NOT intended for other exhibition

At least one month prior to the start date, the producer must contact the Hollywood SAG office. A SAG representative will need the producer to fill out an information sheet about the project and review a copy of the script and pre-production cast list. A packet of documents will then be sent for the producer's signature.

Production Benefits / Rates

- * Rates are subject to negotiation between the producer and the performers; however, state minimum wage laws will still apply
- * Exhibition is allowed on the Internet for six (6) months

Exhibition / Residuals Under the Special Internet / Online Agreement

The producer is entitled to distribute a project produced under the Special Internet / Online Agreement on the Internet for six (6) months. Use beyond the initial six (6) months must be separately negotiated. Other exploitation or re-use will trigger additional compensation. Pension and Health contributions are due on all payments made to the performer.
