

November 8, 2010

To: All SAG Members who are currently represented, or previously been affiliated with Hollywood Select Talent.

Please note that the Screen Actors Guild has learned that Hollywood Select Talent has, effective November 2, 2010, ceased operating as a franchised agency and is now operating as a management company.

The effect of the surrender is as follow:

No member of the Screen Actors Guild may hereafter engage, use or deal through this agency.

All contracts in force between this agency and the members of Screen Actors Guild are ipso facto and without further notice terminated except that the agency may retain and collect any commissions earned under said contracts prior to the surrender of franchise.

Members shall not be under any obligation to pay commissions to the agent on any moneys earned by members after the termination of the agency contracts, even though such moneys are earned by members on employment contracts in existence at the date of termination of the agency contracts.

Yours Truly,

Zino Macaluso
National Director/Sr. Counsel, Agency Relations

ZM:jd