FEATURING JANE ELLIOTT

co-sponsored by the
Museum of Teaching and Learning (MOTAL)

About Jane Elliott:

In response to the assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr. teacher Jane Elliott set aside her lesson plan for the day and devised the controversial and startling, "Blue Eyes/Brown Eyes" exercise for her students. Now an internationally known teacher, lecturer, and diversity trainer, Jane Elliott will make a rare appearance at the Museum of Tolerance to discuss her work that endures to this day.

- Experience a VIP tour of interactive exhibits in the Tolerancenter and landmark exhibits Courage: The Vision to End Segregation. The Guts to Fight for It and Para Todos Los Niños: For All the Children.
- Dine, network and meet Jane Elliott
- Participate in A Conversation with Jane Elliott: Power, Perception and Prejudice. Elliott uses audience members and visual aids to help us to recognize, identify, and appreciate the differences on which power is assigned, and some of the ways in which we are conditioned to develop our perceptions. Q&A to Follow.
