Academy Award-winning writer/director Martin McDonagh takes audiences on a killingly funny trip "In Bruges," which world-premiered as the Opening-Night film of the 2008 Sundance Film Festival. The most well-preserved medieval city in the whole of Belgium, Bruges is a welcoming destination for travellers from all over the world. But for hit men Ray (Colin Farrell) and Ken (Brendan Gleeson), it could be their final destination. A difficult job has resulted in the pair being ordered right before Christmas by their London boss Harry (two-time Academy Award nominee Ralph Fiennes) to go and cool their heels in the storybook Flemish city for a couple of weeks.
