Actor Bio:

Character actor Robert David Hall is seen every week on one of the highest rated dramas in primetime television. Hall plays quirky coroner Dr. Albert Robbins on the award winning CSI: Crime Scene Investigation. In his 25-year career, Hall has amassed numerous credits in film and television, including roles in "The Negotiator", "Starship Troopers", "The West Wing", "The Practice", and has been heard in hundreds of commercials, animated series narrations, and network promos. One of the most prominent disabled actors working today, it was Hall's role as a burn survivor in Michael Apted's "Class Action" which closely parallels his real life. In 1978, an 18-wheel truck struck Hall's car and he was severely burned when his gas tank exploded. After several months in a burn unit and the amputation of both legs, he today walks comfortably on two prosthetic limbs. A devoted community activist, he has served on boards and committees for SAG, The National Organization on Disability, AFTRA, Actor's Equity, and others. He is in demand as a public speaker and has won numerous awards for his acting and activism.
