

Basil Harris

Basil Harris
SAG, AFTRA

Topo Swope Talent LLC 206-443-2021

Basil Harris SAG, AFTRA

Rhinoceros	Logician	Capitol Hill Arts Center
An American Book of the Dead	Blink Bodie	Annex Theatre
The Gingerbread Man	Mr. Salt	Seattle Children's Theatre
Go, Dog. Go!	Yellow Dog	Seattle Children's Theatre
Speechless	Principal cast	Bald Faced Lie
Vera Wilde	Robbie Ross	Empty Space Theatre
Commercial
Washington Lottery/Powerball	Voice Talent	Cole & Weber
Columbia Bank	Teller (principal)	The Dakota Group
The Bon Marche	Insomniac (principal)	The Bon Marche
Idaho Lottery	Bumper Boy (principal)	ES Drake/North By Northwest

Links:

Topo Swope Talent, LLC <http://www.toposwopetalent.com>
 My Homepage <http://www.basilharris.com>

Actor Bio:

Basil Harris is an actor, writer and musician based in Seattle.

He was a founding member of the acclaimed sketch comedy group Bald Faced Lie and has worked as a comedy writer and performer for local television, radio and stage projects.

As a producer, he developed the live talk show, "The Stay Up Late Show" and is the developing producer of Caution Zero Network's new web series "What the Funny?"

Film credits include the award-winning "We Go Way Back" and the indie cult hit, "Mulletville", Lynn Shelton's "My Effortless Brilliance" (for which he shares writing credit) and the short films, "Shut Eye" and "Night Falls on Cleo & Jack". He also co-wrote the camp satire "Creatures From the Pink Lagoon".

Currently, he plays bass guitar in the art-pop band, "Awesome".

Skills and Training:

Special Skills:

Golfer, Improv, Roller Blader, Skier-Snow, Swimmer

Other Skills:

Improv and sketch comedy, basic stage combat and physical comedy skills, Dialects - regional US & UK, Music - bass guitar, vocal (baritone), Recreational activities - cycling, swimming and rollerblading, Experience reading from Teleprompter and comfort monitor

Professional Training/Education:

BA in Theatre from University of New Hampshire

Basil Harris
SAG, AFTRA

Advanced Camera Acting - Jodi Rothfield, Seattle

Concepts in Advertising - School of Visual Concepts, Seattle