Actor Bio:

Edward Joseph Sicoli, Jr. Born in Newark, New Jersey. Graduated from West Orange High School. Attended both William Paterson College and UNLV in Las Vegas, Nevada, Majored in Music with a Minor in Drama & Film Production. I am an accomplished electric and acoustic guitarist. I enjoy writing and recording my own music and jingles and voiceovers at my home digital recording studio when I am between the "hard to come by" very few "good roles" available to audition for. I love being creative and always had this passion for performing and entertaining people. For me, just being around and working in "the industry" is rewarding and fulfills this passion. My primary goal is to become a successful and steady working union "Character Actor" and just try to make some sort of living doing what I love. I paid my dues doing "background" work, especially, non featured. I can only keep chopping at the bit hoping to land the speaking roles. With all due respect to other actors and casting directors, I didn't become an actor nor join SAG to keep my mouth shut or be, or should I say, remain a wall fixture! Just being honest, and as I often am known to do, "telling it like it is"!
