Actor Bio:

A native of the Logan/Olney section of Philadelphia (near LaSalle University), Jim has resided in Green Lane, PA since the '70's. Gifted with a great ear for music, he took piano lessons for seven years from age 6 to 13--yet plays by ear primarily. He was in his first rock band at age 15, played several lead roles in high schools plays and musicals (Nathan Detroit in "Guys & Dolls", Henry Drummond in "Inherit the Wind" and Jesus in Stephen Schwartz' "Godspell"). After two years as a Theatre & Speech major at what is now known as DeSales University, Jim was hired at WAEB radio in Allentown at age 20 to do news/weather reports in 1981. After 5 months there he did a one-year stint as disc jockey for rock station WZZO(Z-95), then headquartered in Bethlehem PA (met Joan Jett twice, Ozzy Osbourne, Kansas, Mike Reno of Loverboy, ZZTop, Johnny Van Zant Band). The band "Vagabond" then tapped him as their keyboardist for a year in 1983 and they played the Lehigh Valley and New Jersey extensively, opening once for the Hooters. From 1984 to 1987 Jim did 5 major productions for Richard Akins Productions as an actor--playing Jesus in "Jesus Christ Superstar", Magaldi in "EVITA" and more. In 1986 Jim began his foray into the piano/bar/restaurant world which he continues to this present day. And now some highlights: JIM LOFTUS HAS OPENED FOR REGIS PHILBIN (State Theatre in Easton, PA--Jan. 1992); written an original rock opera musical "GHOSTS ON BROADWAY" which played NYC's John Houseman Theatre in May 1995 (attended by Grammy and Oscar-award winning composer STEPHEN SCHWARTZ--do yourself a favor and visit www.stephenschwartz.com)--[Jim is currently working on bringing the show back to NYC in a bigger production]; he played tribute dinner functions at the Plaza Hotel, NYC for the late ROSETTA LeNOIRE and DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS, JR. (April 1996), also the late MILTON BERLE (Oct. 1996--Waldorf-Astoria Hotel) and JULIE ANDREWS (Feb. 1997--21 Club); Jim and his trio THREE TOGETHER opened for TODD RUNDGREN at Crocodile Rock, Allentown, PA (Oct. 2001). He's done TV and film extra work in Philadelphia and NYC, including the CBS show "HACK" (5 episodes!--read about his experiences on "HACK" by going to www.davidmorse.org), "Sex & the City" episode in final season, and the new film "Hitch" with Will Smith; most recent appearances include 3 episodes from Season 7 (2005) of "Law & Order: SVU"; most prominently on the episode "STRAIN" as a featured jury member.
