RECYCLED ROCK

Actor Bio:

Fervent actress/artist Michele Morrow grew up in the Pacific Northwest and received a Bachelor of Arts in Drama at the University of Washington in Seattle before moving to the homogenized sunshine of Los Angeles. Upon arriving, Michele was immediately accepted to the famed Second City Conservatory Program for improvisation. During this time she also worked as a writer and performer of the high-energy, rebellious sketch comedy troupe SITCOMS BLOW.

It wasn't long before Michele transitioned from the stage to the screen, appearing in award winning films PURGATORY HOUSE and THE SEER, an Italian feature, where her portrayal of a tormented young woman suffering disturbing visions gained her attention at the Estepona Film Festival in Spain. Michele can be seen in several other independent films including CHARM BRACELET, THE SILO, STORY, and SLAUGHTERHOUSE OF THE RISING SUN, as well as the critically acclaimed television series, ALIAS.

In the last year, Michele has delivered a string of deft performances, starring as the determined and vengeful Karen Cook in the soon to be released BASEMENT JACK, helmed by director and noted FX artist Michael Shelton (Passion of the Christ, Exorcism of Emily Rose). Michele also stars as the frightened and vulnerable Kerra in modern day vampire tale, BLED, directed by Christopher Hutson and produced by Jeffrey Allard (The Texas Chainsaw Massacre). Hutson recently invited her back to play the role of Sezah in Fatkid Films' dark comedy, ASHLEY'S ASHES, where she joins an all-star cast including Daniel Baldwin, Clint Howard (Apollo 13), Willy Garson (Sex & the City), and Scott Michael Foster (ABC's Greek).

Besides acting, Michele is known for her coveted collage series, RECYCLED ROCK. She also owns production company, GLASS ONION
